

The 3 Day Learning Commitment

Everyone in Barnardo's should have at least 3 days of learning per year*

WHY

WHAT

HOW

"Learning is key to getting better"

*Emma, Include Me 2
Barnardo's Participation Project*

Examples of impact

Increased learning of current legislation = greater power of advocacy

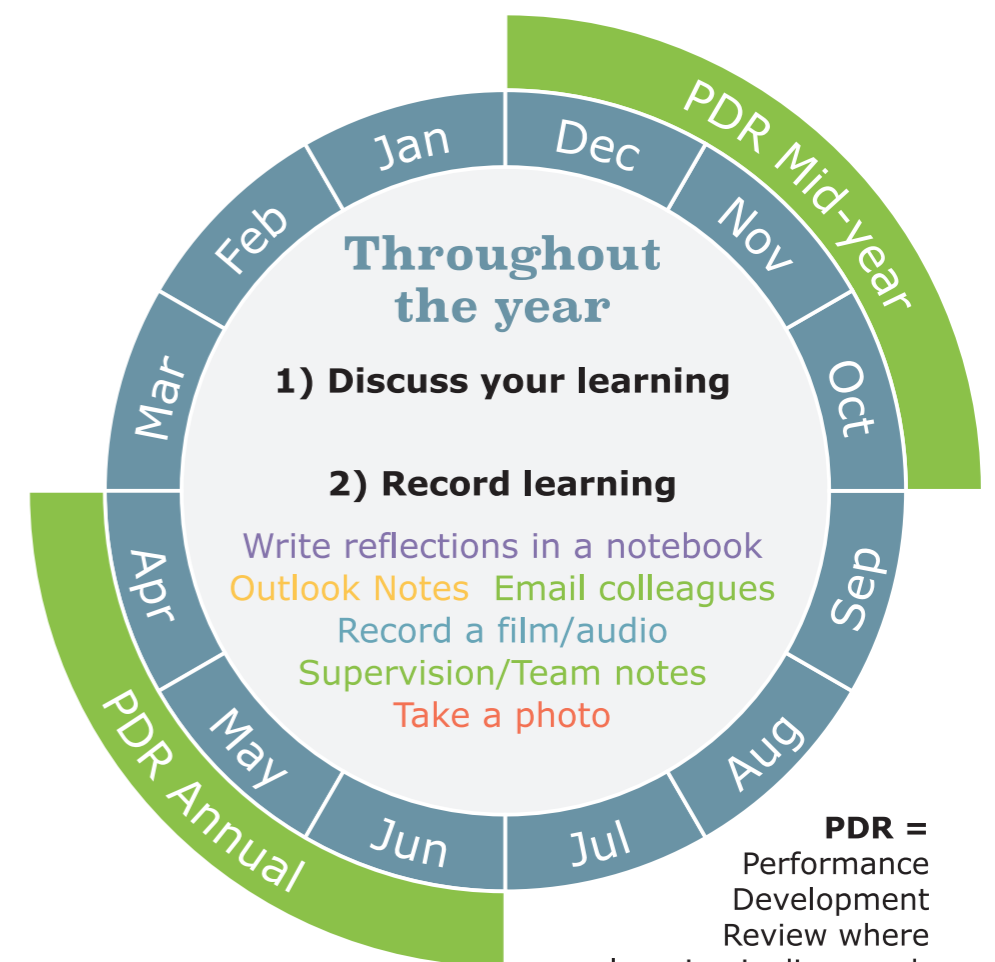

Thorough research and evaluation = better evidence for designing services

Deeper knowledge of local Children's Services = enhanced promotion of Barnardo's work in retail shops

Taking time to listen to children's voices = increased understanding of the best support

Learning from a project that didn't go well = a better design for next time

Examples of great learning activities

What's Next?

Talk to your Line Manager about The 3 Day Learning Commitment at your next supervision, 1to1, team meeting and/or group supervision.

*This can be proportional to the number of days/hours you work/volunteer